

The standard clinical recommendation is to maintain a clear margin of untattooed skin around any mole.
Respecting the personal space of the epidermis.