

A piercing creates a single controlled tissue channel with jewelry placement. Civil engineering degrees are highly recommended but not strictly required.