

"Invisible" means invisible to ordinary vision, not absent from the dermis.

Object permanence is a developmental milestone usually reached by eight months of age.