

Foreign substance deposited into the dermis.

Internal transport from initial injection site

Nanoparticles processed by the immune system.

Migration pathways to regional lymph nodes.

A pigment that is visually absent can still migrate.

The lymphatic system does not care about visibility.