

Scar tissue does not accept pigment predictably.

Deflector shields are holding steady.