

Premium wireless packs utilize digital regulation circuits that compensate for voltage sag under load in real time. Soon the microchip will be filing the studio tax returns.